Playbill Synopsis

Louise Reindorf has left her considerable fortune to her wacky family, but some surprises in the will lead to murder. It's up to you, the audience to sort through the clues and solve the mystery.

After Acts I and II the characters will be available to sell clues to help you solve this mystery. All characters will tell the truth except anyone involved in the crime.

Once you have the mystery solved, write down who did it and give your solution to Detective Mayne Summerfield.

The evening is sponsored by the Stewardship Committee
