LIGHTING OF THE CHRIST CANDLE	Rev. Tom Bentley		“O Little Town of Bethlehem”	#23 booklet, vs 1 & 4
Tonight, is the night for which we have all been waiting. Our Advent wreath will now be completed by the lighting of our Christ candle. “For unto us a child is given, unto us a Savior is born and the order of the world will be upon his shoulders.” With the birth of Jesus, our lives can be forever changed. We can be transformed by his model and message. We light this candle to represent that Christ is truly invited to be the center of our lives.			1 O little town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie! Above thy deep and dreamless sleep The silent stars go by. Yet in thy dark streets shineth The everlasting light; The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.
*Opening Carol	“O Come All Ye Faithful”	#19 booklet	4 O holy Child of Bethlehem! Descend to us, we pray; Cast out our sin and enter in; Be born in us today. We hear the Christmas angels The great glad tidings tell; O come to us, abide with us, Our Lord Emmanuel!
Meditation	“Looking for the Midnight Clear”	Rev. Tom Bentley

And the mountains in reply Echo back their joyous strains:

Say what may the tidings be, Which inspire your heavenly song?

Come, adore on bended knee, Christ the Lord, the new-born King.

Prayer of Dedication

Luke 2:1-5

Kathi Martin

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered.
Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child.

Luke 2:6- 7

While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no place in the guest room.

Luke 2: 8-14Kathi Martin

Now in that same region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid, for see, I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.”

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

Carol:“Angels We Have Heard on High”#7 booklet

Luke 2: 15-19Kathi Martin

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So, they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them, and Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart.

* Carol: “What Child is this Who Laid to Rest”#24 vs 1 & 2 booklet

Luke 2:20Kathi Martin

The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told them.

Candle Lighting

The pastor will take the flame from the Christ Candle and offer it to the Deacons who will share the light with the congregation while they remain seated in the pews. As the persons on the end of the pew receives the flame, they will pass this on to their neighbors until all the candles are lit in the sanctuary. As the flame is passed everyone is invited to sing all four verse of Silent Night, Hymn #12 in the Booklet

John 1: 1-5Rev. Tom Bentley

(While the scripture is read everyone is requested to extinguish their candles. At the end of reading all the sanctuary is made dark save for the one flame in the Christ Candle.)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overtake it.
